Name: San Isidro School Supplies Program

Explanation: The Board of Directors once again approved the Foundation extending its charitable activities abroad, consistent with the exempt purposes of the Foundation, to parents and children of another church in the Philippines - San Isidro Labrador. The US Treasury department's Office of Foreign Control (OFAC) website was reviewed to ensure the Philippines continued to not be on the list of sanctioned countries. See the Statement of Activity #2 in Part VIII-A for a detailed description of these charitable activities performed in the Philippines. The management of these charitable activities and maintaining of expenditure responsibility was performed by officers at the main office of the Foundation in Yorba Linda, California (USA). Volunteers in the Philippines were family members of the president of the Foundation. The president and treasurer traveled to the Philippines to train, supervise and work with the volunteers in performing these charitable activities.

Due to poverty, shoes were also purchased and distributed to all of the children in addition to a hot take-away lunch. The president and the treasurer of the Foundation then flew to the Philippines to train the volunteers, and oversee the assembly, delivery, and distribution of the backpacks filled with school supplies and shoes.

Amount: $6,873
